Fantastic app but sometimes when I play any web series it takes to load too much in my iPhone that was irritating. Yesterday I saw a web series and play the last episode of the web series it takes uploading too much and now the same is not the same one that plays uploading ... please adjust this problm this app is a fantastic app Ã ° Before watching Bhaukaal an original MX that is fantastic but I don't see even aa Announcement What should mean in this, except for the original MXs everything is equally divided with the ads with the show ... if 1 ad is fine, but 3 ads is disgusting and after I sent the show i am continually watching the announcements I missed in forwards remained really bothered by the fact that it's all I'm canceling the mx player I can't look at the announcements that even 3-3 .... a housed announcement I had that it was almost a minute I can't even ignore that .... goodbye mx sorry 'player announcement' not player mx seen a series that was decent but still watchable. Except for advertising. Yes. Just an announcement every 3-4 minutes pushed into the videos. The same announcement plus and more times. Dona t know who he thought showing the same announcement 15 times an hour was a good idea. If nothing else, I ended up hating the Coz product I was sick of it. Airplay on Apple TV 3 had a lot of problems too. Overall not exactly a pleasant experience. Eliminated the application. Maybe one day, when they offer a pod option without patient announcements try again. But for now, I m made with it. Hi, we realize that advertising could be interrupting in your seamless experience when you are trying to look at your favorite content.ã, however, as the application will remain free for use, we assure you that only relevant announcements And discreet will continue to show.
