It's this one in particular that I wanna change. Zera Gamer What happens if a sound mod I uploaded or a sound mod I wish to download has an issue where the preview media will not play? I uploaded three sound mods all with preview audio, but none of them are loading, and neither are the waveforms for them. Is the website having trouble with the audio previews, or is it my internet not loading them in with the website? Or did it have trouble with the actual upload when I created the sound page? I do not know how to create a support ticket, so I believe this is the closest I can get to that. Please assist me when you do have the time, I know how busy you folks can get running a site like this. Thank you very much. :) Medic Pope This isnt where you ask staff questions, people.
