February in America: Black History Month!

Black history month (BHM) is a time in America, Canada, and The United Kingdom, when everyone celebrates the achievements and contributions of black people to society. In America and Canada, it is always celebrated in February. Black History month started as Black History week, but over time, was changed to last for 30 days. Many schools have festivals and plays during this time. Community groups, museums, churches, and other groups often have special events to celebrate as well. People are encouraged to think about African Americans in society who inspire them, and also think about ways to inspire those around them.

HOW CAN BIG BUSINESS MAKE MONEY FROM TAXES?

Lesson Description

This lesson is designed to help students understand how large corporations use their size and resources to influence government policy. It includes a reading passage, a video, and a series of questions that explore the ways in which big business can lobby Congress, influence the regulatory process, and use its political connections to its advantage. The lesson also includes a writing prompt that asks students to consider the impact of corporate tax cuts on the economy and on society.

Learning Objectives

By the end of this lesson, students will be able to:

- Explain how large corporations can influence government policy.
- Describe the ways in which big business can lobby Congress and influence the regulatory process.
- Analyze the impact of corporate tax cuts on the economy and on society.

Materials

- Reading passage: "How Can Big Business Make Money from Taxes?"
- Video: "The Power of Big Business"
- Handout: "Corporate Tax Cuts and the Economy"

Procedure

1. Read the passage "How Can Big Business Make Money from Taxes?" aloud to the class.

2. Watch the video "The Power of Big Business" and take notes on the ways in which big business can influence government policy.

3. Distribute the handout "Corporate Tax Cuts and the Economy" and discuss the impact of corporate tax cuts on the economy and on society.

4. Assign students to write a short paper in which they analyze the impact of corporate tax cuts on the economy and on society.
