"It has been a great honor to be part of the Grand Ole Opry all these years", said Parton. It was always my dream. To have a whole celebration and broadcast it, it's really a wonderful thing to complete my life like that. So if I die the day after tomorrow it is á ~ | I'm not going anywhere. I just wanted to, is is is is it a great way to go? After crossing his midpoint point, he introduced á ~ Á Joshua, á ~ which he said was one of his first great campaign records. It's á ~ a guy ole who I fell in love with again The Smokies, á ~ explained before throwing into the song. á ~ "This takes me back in time. I've been writing songs since I was a little ole thing, I like to write songs because in the first few days we didn't have a lot of TV, and we couldn't go to the movies. Á "I write stories and painted pictures, and they sang them to my family. We felt like we were going to the movies. Some of them are true. Some of them are false, and some of them are based on a thread of truth - like this. Á "Parton launched in her famous á ~ Á Jolene, á ~ the impulse for one of her new Netflix movies starring Julianne Hough as the title character that will be released later this year. At the end of the song, someone in the audience shouted: á ~ "I love you, Dolly.Á ~" She joked: á ~ "She told you to wait in the truck. Never leave a rhinestone not stretched the roaring crowd. His Dulcimer moved was in the stadium waiting, and the country of music of the famer country walked away on a stool and put the instrument through his lap. "I never leave an undelonged rhinestones", he said.Parton, a native of Sevid County in eastern Tennessee, followed with á ~ Á My Tennessee Mountain Home.á ~ On the same sentimental heart, he moved to stories about his beloved parents Avie Lee and Robert Parton. He talked about how his mother made their clothes, sewed curtains for their house from food bags and taught them just because they had nothing. "He's complaining", Parton said. á ~ "We were poor, but those memories made me rich and not in money á ~" but in gratitude and humility. Á "The feeling inspired one of the successes of the signature of PARTON á Ácoat of many colors, á ~ "that he performed. The singer said that after the song was successful, he told her mother he wanted to take her to Knoxville and buy her a mink coat. Her mother turned down, she turned down the offer. Mink coat? Where am I going to wear a mink coat around here? "Parton remembers his mother asking. á ~ "Besides, I don't want something that something has already worn. Just give me the money. "Parton gave her the money. It was so hard for me to sing that song after losing my mom several years ago, it was so hard for me to sing that song, it's á ~" Parton explained. á ~ "Now is to a sweet spirit in my heart brings her back."As he did an embery version of á ~ Á9 to 5. Partpon, who kicked off her career performing with Porter Wagoner, welcomed famous Banjo player Buck Trent on stage to join her in the biggest hit of Wagoner á ~ ÁCarroll Incident in County.Á Á "She closed her set with á ~" you love her. It's forever. "Members of the crowd burst into tears. While following each song, Parton received a standing ovation. And not everything he received. At a backstage reception between shows, Tennessee Governor Bill Lee introduced Parton with a proclamation declaring October 12 Dolly Parton Day. á ~ "I just love this, and I feel very special" said Parton. á ~ "What did you get for me? Nine hours later the 73-year-old Parton did his first interview of the day at the Grand Ole Opry House, returned to the stage and played his show all over the next crowd. AA
