WEEK 1
DAY 5

Monitor Comprehension

READ THE PASSAGE As you read, keep your attention focused on the facts about Santa Anna's life.

The Story of Santa Anna

Early Life
Santa Anna was born in Mexico in 1794, when Mexico was still owned by Spain. He began his career in the Spanish army when he was only 16. Santa Anna first fought against Native Americans in Mexico. Brave and smart, Santa Anna quickly became popular with the other soldiers. He was given many honors. When Santa Anna turned 22, he was made a captain in the army.

Politics
After Mexico declared itself independent of Spain, Santa Anna became a politician. He served as the president of Mexico many times. None of his terms were very long, and he was not a good president. Sometimes, he showed little interest in running a country. Other times, he was a dictator who favored the rich. He made many bad decisions that made the country poorer. However, Santa Anna claimed that he wanted to help Mexico. So every time Mexico was in trouble, he offered his "aid."
