Macbeth
Act 2 scene 2

Lady Macbeth opens the scene by saying that the alcohol, which has made the men drunk, has made her feel _____.

She hears _____. This is an _____ and signals that an evil deed is about to be done.

She says: "He is about it.", meaning that _____.

She has made sure that the guards are _____ and the doors unlocked. She seems to be in control but a little _____.

Macbeth enters, carrying _____.

Lady Macbeth is afraid that her husband has failed in his task. She imagines that the guards _____. She says that she _____ for Macbeth to make it easier for him; and that if King Duncan had not _____, she would have _____.

Macbeth tells his wife that he has "_____ " and asks her if she heard a noise. She replies that she heard _____ and _____. Both of these were associated with _____ in Shakespearean times.

Both characters seem a little jumpy at this point, asking each other questions that remain unanswered.

Macbeth looks at the blood on his hands and says "_____ " Lady Macbeth tells him not to be foolish, implying that he should be pleased at the sight of the blood, as it is a sign that they have succeeded in their "deed".

Macbeth Reading Guide
Act I Qs

1. The play opens with the witches to create a supernatural setting and introduce evil into the play. Many Renaissance audience members believed in witchcraft. The witches create suspense about Macbeth. They discuss the recent battles in which Macbeth fought.
2. Duncan rewards Macbeth by giving him the title of the captured traitor, the Thane of Cawdor. Macbeth finds this out through Ross, Duncan's messenger, AFTER the witches prophesized that Macbeth was the Thane of Cawdor.
3. The day of battle is "foul and fair": Fair that they won and defeated the traitors and foul that they lost their once loyal friends.
4. When Ross gives the news of Thane of Cawdor, Macbeth is amazed and speechless. Banquo is shocked.
5. Malcolm is an obstacle between Macbeth and the throne. Macbeth either remains a thane or must find some way to remove Malcolm in order to become king. It seems likely that Macbeth will plot Malcolm's murder.
6. Lady Macbeth fears her husband is too womanly and weak. He lacks manliness.
7. Lady Macbeth counsels her husband to put on a false face. Show kindness to Duncan, but plot an evil scheme (be a serpent who will strike).
8. Duncan and Banquo discuss how lovely and peaceful Inverness is as they approach. The air has a pleasant odor and the baby birds are happy in their nests. This creates dramatic irony because the Macbeths have planned to murder the innocent Duncan.
9. Macbeth believes the murder is wrong because it betrays a double trust. Duncan is a guest in Macbeth's house and also the king. Macbeth has a duty as host and loyal subject. Duncan is so beloved by the Scots that his death would sent the country into a state of misery.
10. Lady Macbeth taunts Macbeth into killing Duncan. She says he is a coward and not a man. She insults his masculinity.

6. What does Elizabeth mean by "The mirror is up"?
- She is going to the living.
7. Why does Elizabeth think that she has been accused of adultery? Why accused her?
- Miranda because Reverend Hudd comes to her house and told them.
8. Why does John Proctor say the devil was in her bedroom?
- He does not like her and doesn't see the light of god in her.
9. What advice to her the 10 commandments, which commandment does John Proctor forget to say? Why is this wrong?
- He had an affair.
10. What happens if you confess to adultery? vs. if you deny it and are found guilty? Just going to jail vs being hung.
11. Reverend Hudd says, "Woe, woe, woe, woe, woe!" what does he mean by this?

- What is Macbeth's lie to Banquo about the witches' predictions?
 - He says he does not remember what they said.
 - He says he does not even think about them.
 - He says they made a bad job given his their predictions, but they are wrong about him even being king.
 - He says only Banquo and women believe such nonsense.
- What is the signal Lady Macbeth is to give Macbeth to let him know that she has drugged the guards?
 - She will ring a bell.
 - She will send a servant to say she still and wants to see him.
 - She will light three candles in her bedroom window.
 - She will stand at the window and whistle like a bird.
- What reason does Lady Macbeth give for not killing Duncan herself?
 - It would offend Macbeth's parent if she did the killing.
 - She is not a strong and might not be able to use the knife effectively.
 - She saw her dream that only Macbeth could commit the murder.
 - He reminded her of her father sleeping there.
- After Macbeth kills Duncan, he goes to Lady Macbeth and is concerned about not being able to say "Amen." What is her advice to him?
 - He should have stopped and now he will succeed.
 - It does not matter whether or not he can say it.
 - They shouldn't think about it or it will make them crazy.
 - After things calm down he can go to the priest and ask for forgiveness.
- Then, Macbeth is worried about hearing a voice saying, "Macbeth does murder sleep." What does Lady Macbeth have him do?
 - Have a glass of wine and relax.
 - Use some water, get dressed up and brag about it.
 - Have the maids come and dig some spots near to put them to sleep.
 - Go for a walk in the garden and get some fresh air.
- Why won't Macbeth take the daggers back to the scene of the crime?
 - He can't find his back at Duncan's night.
 - He is afraid to be seen and look suspicious.
 - He thinks it will be bad luck to touch them again.
 - He says he has done enough; Lady Macbeth can return the daggers.
